

Master Gardener Bursary

The Bursary

The Centre for Continuing & Distance Education awards two $300 bursaries to students of the Master Gardener Training program at the Nova Scotia Agricultural College. The purpose of the bursary is to provide incentive for further education in gardening.

How to Qualify

To qualify applicants must be currently enrolled or planning to enroll in one of the four online courses that are required for the Master Gardener Training program. The selection criteria include reason(s) for choosing the Master Gardener Training program, active involvement in community activities, and reason(s) for applying for this bursary.

Where to Apply

Application forms are available on our Master Gardener webpage, which can be found at <http://nsac.ca/cde/courses/DE/Master-Gardener/default.asp>. Applications must be submitted no later than October 15th. For the 2011-2012 academic year, the bursary will be applied to courses offered in the January and March intakes only.

Notification of the Recipients

Award recipients will be notified in writing once the bursaries are awarded and the names of the recipients will be posted on our website.
